

THE ITALIAN SCHOOL SYSTEM

NURSERY SCHOOL

Primary school can be preceded by 3 years of nursery nurseryschool/kindergarten, although kindergartens are not compulsory

PRIMARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOL

There are two stages of education in Italy:

- Primary
- Secondary

Primary school
(5 years: from 6 to 10)

IT IS CALLED

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

SECONDARY EDUCATION

Secondary education is further divided in two stages:

- "Medie Inferiori"
(Middle School grade),
and
- "Medie Superiori"
(Secondary School level).

Secondary School (1st grade)

After the Elementary School, children attend
the Middle School

It lasts 3 years

and

involves an exam

at the end of the third year

MIDDLE SCHOOL
(scuola media)

exam

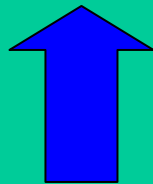

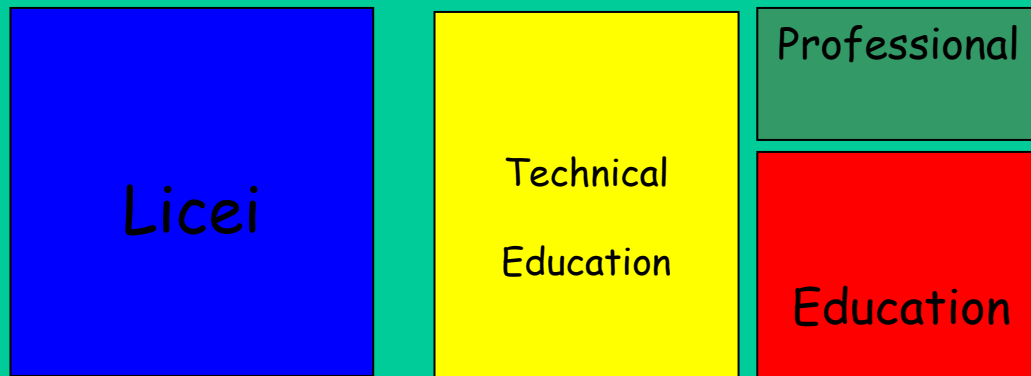

Secondary school (2nd grade)

"Scuole Superiori" lasts another
5 years.

Every tier involves an exam at the end of the final year, required to access the following tier. A typical Italian student is 19 when he enters university, while in the UK and other countries, 18 is the more common age.

FINAL EXAM
(ESAME DI MATURITA')

Secondary school (second level)

Middle School

UNIVERSITY

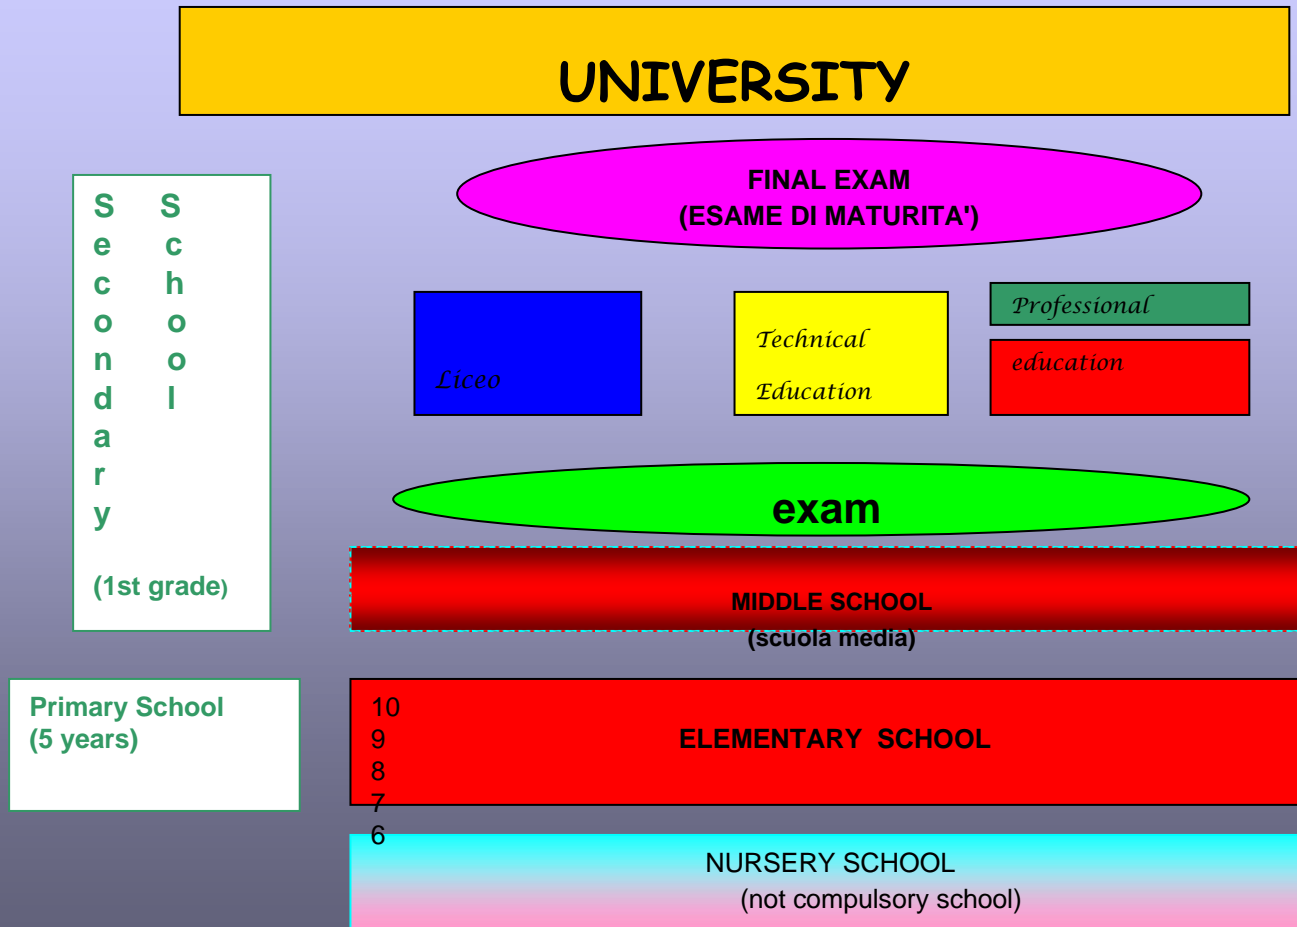

Bachelor's degree
(3 years)

Master's degree
(2 years)
